

Analogies Practice

Name: _____

Date: _____

---

Part 1: Making a Sentence

Analogy sentences should be short [1-3 words] and descriptive. Your sentence should clearly show the relationship between the two words.

Example: Sly is to Fox

* Sly is a CHARACTERISTIC of a fox*

1. Puppy is to dog as
2. Lamp is to light as
3. Call is to phone as
4. Shark is to mammal as
5. Incline is to decline as
6. Quiet is to library as
7. Air is to tire as
8. Tired is to exhausted as
9. Bread is to baker as
10. Palace is to residence as

Part 2: Taking Your Sentence to the Answers

1. Puppy is to dog as

- A. cat is to mouse                      B. infant is to baby                      C. cub is to bear
D. deer is to fawn                      E. flock is to geese

2. Lamp is to light as

- A. finger is to hand                      B. telescope is to stars                      C. moisture is to rain
D. bank is to money                      E. television is to movie

3. Call is to phone as

- A. nose is to smell                      B. pie is to pumpkin                      C. exercise is to gym
D. box is to store                      E. tree is to christmas

4. Shark is to fin as

- A. cat is to claws                      B. giraffe is to skyscraper                      C. bird is to wing
D. wolf is to pack                      E. hump is to camel

5. Incline is to decline as

- A. cat is to dog                      B. in is to out                      C. rain is to precipitation
D. tree is to rot                      E. rich is to greedy

6. Quiet is to library as

- A. hot is to summer                      B. wood is to door                      C. anger is to frustrated
D. cut is to scissors                      E. copy is to printer

7. Air is to tire as

- A. nurse is to hospital                      B. dry is to desert                      C. sunlight is to grow
D. footprint is to snow                      E. wood is to fire

8. Tired is to exhausted as

- A. frigid is to cold                      B. hungry is to ravenous                      C. speedometer is to speed
D. footprint is to snow                      E. wood is to fire

9. Bread is to baker as

- A. mechanic is to car                      B. library is to librarian                      C. author is to novel
D. meat is to butcher                      E. congress is to government

10. Palace is to residence as

- A. diamond is to baseball                      B. museum is to quiet                      C. zoo is to animal
D. cuisine is to food                      E. nature is to outdoors

Part 3: The Answers

1. C -- A puppy is a YOUNG dog, a cub is a YOUNG bear

2. D -- A lamp is USED for light, a bank is used for money

3. C -- A phone is used to call, a gym is used to exercise

4. C -- A shark moves with its fin, a bird moves with its wings

5. B -- Incline is the opposite of decline, in is the opposite of out

6. A -- Quiet is a characteristic of a library, hot is a description of summer

7. E -- Air goes in a tire to make it function, wood goes in a fire

8. B -- Tired is less intense than exhausted, hungry is less intense than ravenous

9. D -- A baker works with bread, a butcher works with meat

10. D -- Palace is a fancy type of residence, cuisine is a fancy type of food

